Wolters Kluwer Tax, Accounting & Legal Expands in India

New Delhi (February 13, 2007) - Wolters Kluwer Tax, Accounting & Legal, a leading provider of tax, legal, compliance and regulatory information, announced today the opening of an office in India for its CCH tax and accounting and legal business. With this new operation, Wolters Kluwer is extending its already established strong positions in the tax, accounting and legal markets in the United States, Canada, Asia Pacific, and Europe to India as a global integrated solutions provider for professionals in law firms, accounting firms and corporations in support of Wolters Kluwer's strategy to accelerate profitable growth.

"In line with the company's strategy for 2007 and beyond of exploiting global scale and scope, we are extending our footprint to the Indian tax, accounting and legal information services market. With more than 800,000 lawyers and over 120,000 qualified chartered accountants, along with rapidly evolving tax and commercial laws and increased usage of legal services, this English language content market presents an exciting growth opportunity" said Vinay Hebbar, Managing Director for CCH India. "CCH is building a presence in the market through investments in organic growth. Additionally, we will continue to evaluate attractive opportunities for local acquisitions and partnerships."

CCH will operate through Wolters Kluwer's wholly owned subsidiary in India. The office in New Delhi will have a full-fledged editorial, sales, marketing and customer support teams, supported by other resources in Asia Pacific. With full-time editorial, marketing and sales staff in place, CCH is well positioned to building strong, supportive relationships with authors, key partners and associates, and provide comprehensive service to its customers in India.

"CCH is a leader in tax and accounting solutions for professionals in markets around the world," said Dave Lampert, President CCH Asia Pacific. "We look forward to serving professionals in India with the same authoritative, innovative solutions that provide professionals worldwide today with a competitive advantage by making them more productive and more profitable."

In addition to developing print and electronic content, CCH in India will run customized and high quality training seminars for professionals in the tax, accounting, legal and human resources fields, as it has done successfully in many other markets in the Asia Pacific region. CCH will also offer workflow solution tools, including Prosystem fx Engagement, duly customized for the Indian tax and auditing environment.
